

Name: _____ Section: _____ Day: _____

North American Explorer Research Project.

E.Q.: What is research? How do I begin the process of research? What is the golden age of exploration? What explorers were important to North American history?

Objective: Learn how to use the Big 6 research skills select a research subject in a specific area.

Directions: Use this research guide to help you plan your research.

1. What is the name of your explorer: _____

2. Where and when was the explorer born? _____

3. For what country did the explorer journey? _____

4. What was the King or Queen of this country? _____

5. How did this person explore? _____

6. Where did this person explore?

7. What were some of the great adventures of this explorer? (What was exciting about this explorer?):

Name: _____ Section: _____ Day: _____

8. Use the table below to create a timeline to detail the explorer's journeys.

Date	Fact

9. What was the most interesting part of researching this explorer:

ELA - 3.W.3.9 - Writing - Research to Build and Present Knowledge - Recall information from experiences or gather information from print and digital sources; take brief notes on sources and sort evidence into provided categories. Technology: Students will use technology resources (e.g. calculators, data collection probes, videos, educational software) for problem solving, self-directed learning, and extended learning activities. Social Studies - 4-5a: Students will develop an understanding of Delaware history and its connections with United States history, including: -- Exploration and settlement (1609-1775)